

“You are a better person when you’re taken care of. The holidays don’t have to be stressful, and we are able to redefine what makes them meaningful.”

- Michele Nordquest,
Care Navigator at Lucet

“This is stressful for everyone. No one’s alone or has to shoulder things alone. We can express that we’re a little stressed and we need help.”

- Marnie Levinson,
Dir. of Engineering Operations at Lucet

“Let your emotions out and identify people who can help. If you don’t ask for help, they’re not gonna know.”

- Tania Cruz-Santiago,
Clinical Support Coordinator at Lucet
